SUBMISSIONS NOW OPEN!

2019

The annual W+K APIG Scholarship provides the opportunity for a young APIG member practising in professional indemnity and financial lines insurance in Australia to benefit from an outstanding sponsorship package and educational experience as recognition for their contribution to the industry.

Open each year to current APIG members under the age of 36, the recipient will attend the 3-day Professional Indemnity Forum Conference held in Cambridge, England in July 2020 and visit the Lloyd's insurance market in London with AUD 7,500 towards airfares, accommodation and spending.

Candidates need to produce a short submission introducing their background in financial lines insurance and views on the industry from a perspective that affects them. Entries will be judged by a panel of four members of the APIG National Committee and one representative from Wotton + Kearney, with the winner announced at the APIG National Conference in Sydney on 22 August 2019.

Submissions are now open with an application form attached. Full terms and conditions are available on the APIG website at www.apig.com.au.

Robinson College, Cambridge, UK
